SATURDAY, DEC 14, 1872.

All Advertisements must be handed to the Business Manager before Thursday Noon.

Reading has a blind newsboy.

SNOW BALLS.—Each balling at the other; then each bawling his own praise.

Potatoes are a cigar and a drink of whiskey per bushel at Davenport.

The hippymosis has attacked the farmers—they are all sick of the horse disease.

Rowe's Pump is to be incorporated. That's right. But don't call it Rowe's Pump. Give it a "local habitation and a name." Call it Edisto, or or some thing else.

Emanuel Ezekiel has just received a large and fresh stock of cutlery, fancy goods, perfumery, groceries, etc. Besides this he has a splendid display of jewelry, and is still ready to repair and clean watches.

Our obligations are acknowledged to Dr. Oliveros for his little remembrance, which was an earnest of Christmas.

The Doctor takes especial delight in exhibiting and explaining his stock of rare toys, games and amusing things.

"His little round belly shook when he laughed like a bowl full of jelly."

This is a part of that fine and familiar description of St. Nick who it seems has appointed Dr. A. C. Dukes, of this place his agent to dispense of Holiday and Christmas goods.

On Monday 9th inst., about 1 o'clock P. M. the gin house of Mr. Fowles, about a mile from the rail road, was discovered to be on fire. It is thought to have originated from a spark from the engine. Very fortunately it was discovered in time and extinguished without doing much damage. The Fire Companies were en route towards the scene, the Hook and Ladder, ahead!

A Lewisville man, who had only been acquainted with his girl two nights, attempted to kiss her at the gate.

In his dying deposition he said that "just as he kissed her, she earth slid from under his feet, and his soul went out of his mouth, while his head touched a star." Estate investigation showed that what ailed him was the old gentle man's boot.

EGG FLIPP.—Something is said of snow and comfort elsewhere, but of all the comfortable does that can be administered or prescribed at this season, is a glass of egg flip, which is fixed up with nutmeg and good whiskey in it at J. Herman Wahler's Saloon. By gosh! Messrs Hartzog and Wannamaker know their "biz."

"BEAUTIFUL SNOW."—On Tuesday night, a heavy fall of snow draped old earth in her vestment of chill and sublime beauty. On Wednesday morning the sun rose upon a scene of unusual character for these sunny parts. The ground, the roofs, the trees, all wore the white drapery of snow.

So much for the beauty; now if you talk of comfort, ah! that is a very different thing. Boys may love this thing, but we know our steady men are with us when we wince a little at the cold and uncomfortable footing of the thing. But our understanding of this subject is "afire."

"Improvement" is still the counter-tye in Orangeburg, and the signs of the countersign are everywhere. New business relations of promise and reliability are being formed; new stores are erected and occupied; heavier and handsomer stocks of goods are imported and sold, each winter, and repair and repainting are revivifying the exterior of dwellings, and renewing the appearance of fences.

Among these things, are the improvements which are being put upon the large and commodious residence occupied by Mr. H. B. Wannamaker, on Russell Street. Ex-Sheriff J. W. H. Dukes is at work at this. We understand that he contemplates opening a Hotel there that shall equal even the best. March on!

Sleighting in Orangeburg.

Truly we are up to Boston! While the snow lay upon the ground on Wednesday December 11th, A. D. 1872, a party of our worthy German citizens, composed of Hons F. H. W. Briggmann, Mayor, M. Albrecht, W. T. Muller and Ernest Meitzel, improvised a sleigh, attached two horses to it, and with the silver tinkle of bell, and gliding grace of motion, rode through the thoroughfares of our city, presenting a novel spectacle for this latitude, and attracting the curious and admiring gaze of our benumbed Townsfolk.

The ride was enjoyed to the full by the happy party, and the event has proved that Orangeburg is as cosmopolitan in climate and amusements, as she is in the spirit of her people.

How bravely a man can walk the earth bear the heaviest burdens, perform the severest duties, and look all men square in the face, if he only bears in his breast a clear conscience! There is no spring, no spur, no inspiration like this. To feel that we have omitted no just act, and left no obligation unfulfilled, fills the heart with satisfaction, and the soul with strength. Conscience, it is said, makes cowards of us all—but only cowards when it reproaches us with some unmanliness, some shrinking from truth and right, and the commission of some wrong.

The Almanac Publishers complain that their business is destroyed by Ayer's American Almanac. The people prefer it to any other, the Farmer's Western, Southern or the numerous local almanacs when they can get Ayer's. It supplies the best astronomical data, weather and jokes of them all, and above all, medical advice which is invaluable for every family. It is supplied gratis by the drug gists, and should be preserved for constant reference and use. We are sure that no good housekeeper or grandmother goes willingly without one.

If you feel dull, despondent, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headaches, meat tastes badly, poor appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid liver, or "Biliousness." Nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"CAN'T DO WITHOUT IT."—This is what the stage and horse car companies, livery stable keepers, members of the turf, and all grooms and trainers say of the Mustang Liniment. They "can't do without it." And why? Because it infallibly reduces the external swellings &c., which, under various names, impair the usefulness and value of the king of quadrupeds, and also because, for sprains, strains, galls and other injuries to which horse-flesh is liable, it is the most trustworthy preparation in the market. Yet these recommendations comprise only a portion of its claims to public confidence. During a period of more than sixteen years, it has been recognized as a specific for many of the most agonizing disorders which afflict the human family—such as rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, lumbago, ticdoloreux sore throat, earache, tooth-ache; and likewise as a peerless application for cuts, bruises, burns, and scalds.

OF

Mules and Horses

HORSES! HORSES!! MULES!

We respectfully call the attention of the citizens of Orangeburg and Orangeburg County to the fact, that we have a choice lot of horses from Virginia, on this market by the twentieth of December. This stock has been selected from choice stock raisers in the Old Dominion, and with an eye to the necessities of this market. They will consist of fine Saddle and Harness horses. We also call your attention to the fine lot of mules we now have on hand. We expect to keep a full supply of both horses and mules constantly on hand. If our stock don't give satisfaction, you can return them, and get your money back, with interest. Try us, that's all we want.

The Baltimore Robbery

Demonstrates the oft-told tale that cheap safes, old fashioned safes, safes not up to the times, are the temptations to burglary. Bankers may provide watchmen, and may use other safeguards, but they will not put their money in the watchman's pocket, or if it is a bit of wooden box, no matter how many guards are used. The safe, after all is the last respectable. No amount of watching or guarding will ever make a poor old-style safe trustworthy. This is the citadel, and should be the best that can be made. There is not one else.
